My Phone Manager

THE MARKET

Customers want to hear from businesses by text.

Businesses that communicate well by text have an edge over their competitors, and most still need help doing it right.

95%

of text messages are read and responded to within 3 minutes of being received.

68%

of businesses already use some form of texting, often without a structured campaign.

90%

of consumers prefer text message notifications over phone calls.

WHAT YOU CAN SELL

One platform. Every tool your clients need to grow by text.

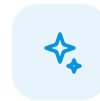

SMS & MMS messaging

Texts and picture messages with emojis, digital coupons, personalization, automation and a two-way inbox.

Digital loyalty kiosk

Check-in and spend-based rewards for brick-and-mortar businesses. Kiosks grow opt-in rates 5x to 10x.

INCLUDED

AI tools

AI message writing and an AI chatbot, included for every reseller at no extra cost.

ADD-ON

My Phone Manager

Automated phone answering that handles common caller questions and texts links to order or book.

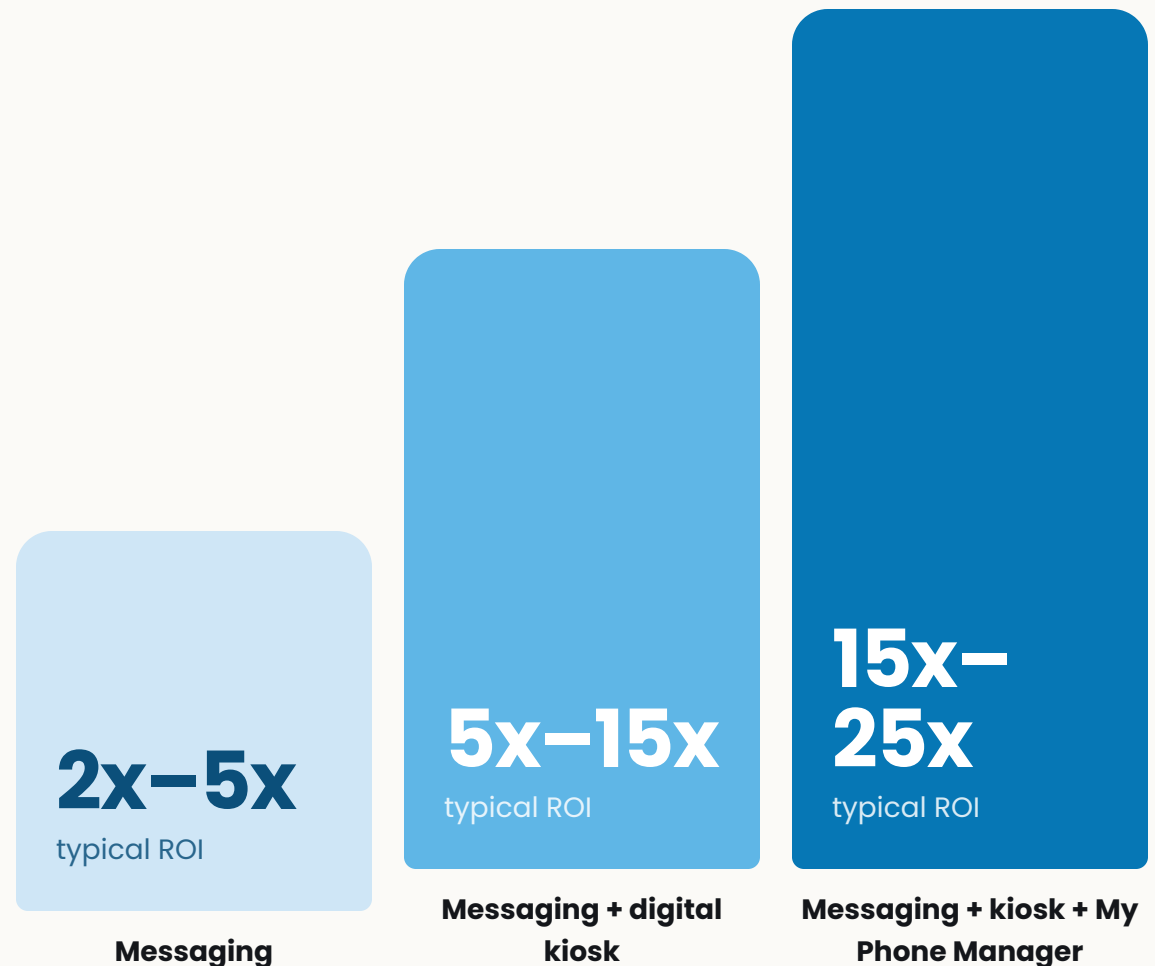

Coming early 2027: RCS business messaging. Branded, verified messages with rich cards and buttons, ready for your clients as carriers roll it out.

BUNDLES WIN

Clients who use more of the platform earn more.

Businesses that combine messaging, the digital kiosk and My Phone Manager generate more incremental revenue and repeat business than with SMS marketing alone.

Typical client ROI ranges based on iVision Mobile client results.
